55+ MINISTRY NEWSLETTER - FEBRUARY 2019

55+ Event

Thursday, February 28
12:00 Noon
Great Hall

Dale & Martha Thomas love Southern Gospel music. In 2011 Dale asked a few friends if they would like to sing in a quartet and they all loved the idea. Martha Thomas suggested that they named their group The Solid Rock Quartet, and The Solid Rock became the group's theme song.

Dale Thomas is a retired banker and is the lead singer for the group. Patsy Weir is a retired mortgage banker and sings alto. Gerald McClesky is a retired Minister of Music and tunes pianos now. He sings tenor. Bobby Covington owns Johnny's Catfish & Seafood and sings bass. The piano player, Jeanette McDonald, is a retired nurse.

The group prays that God will be glorified and people blessed by their music.
