55+ MINISTRY NEWSLETTER- JANUARY 2020

55+ Event

Thursday, January 23
12:00 Noon
Great Hall

Program: Dr. Jim Simmons, Music Minister, FBCL

Dr. Jim Simmons was born in 1976 in Little Rock, AR, and shortly after, moved with his family to Japan where they served as missionaries until 1981. His father continued to follow the Lord's call in ministry, and as a result, Jim has lived many places in the States, including Arkansas, Georgia, Michigan, and Texas. Jim answered a call from the Lord to ministry and missions when he was seventeen, and has pursued that call through mission trips, prison ministry, many years of church music and youth ministry, education, and career decisions. Jim is an alumnus of Ouachita Baptist University, Baylor University, and Colorado University of Boulder, with degrees in Choral Music Education, Church Music, Divinity: Theology, and Music Composition. He loves art, music, reading, people, board games, hiking, laughter, and good food.
